Dear Parents / Guardian,

P6 Social Etiquette Workshop and Graduation Lunch

We are pleased to inform you that the above-mentioned programme has been arranged for your child/ward. The programme aims to:

- Instill proper social etiquette and emphasize its importance in different social settings.
- Develop awareness of non-verbal communication and understanding of its impact and importance in different social gatherings
- Introduce dining etiquette

Students will understand the importance of social etiquette and be able to demonstrate social grade and manners towards others and apply positive non-verbal communications, such as positive body language, poise and deportment. Students will also learn and practise the skills and knowledge on personal grooming and good social and dining etiquette effective during the actual fine dining during their Graduation Lunch. Students are to report to school on both days at the usual time.
